<https://nsw.childcarealliance.org.au/news/916-what-if-nsw-had-a-second-wave-s-or-cluster-s-of-covid-19>

- In Victoria (specifically Melbourne):
 - VIC declaration of local emergency
 - FedGov waiver of gap fees
 - No limit in the number of absences
 - Continuation of 25% Transition Payment
- If State/Territory Government does not declare local emergency, services can rely on allowance of up to seven (7) additional absences as long as gap fees are paid.
- If any service directs a parent(s) to remove their children from care, that would be considered a business decision, and therefore enrolment would immediately cease.

33

33

Early Learning Sector Transition Back to CCS

- ADDITIONAL FEDERAL GOVERNMENT ASSISTANCE:
 - Melbourne-based services to receive an additional 5% top-up payment in addition to the 25% Transition Payment.
 - Larger top-up of between 10% to 25% will be given to services that have attendance levels reduce below 30%.
 - Return of the 62 allowable days of absences.

Opposing the NSW Department of Education's proposed star rating

- NSW Government will continue to recruit/issue services post assessment & ratings to use their star ratings from 1 July 2020 onwards.
- ACA NSW has publicly and consistently opposed it since November 2019.
- ACECQA confirmed in writing there will be no star for Excellent rating.
- ACA NSW will offer an alternative to the star rating that is legally compliant.
 - Free for members.
 - $50 inc GST for non-members.

Breaches/Non-compliances – Accountability, transparency & fairness

<https://nsw.childcarealliance.org.au/news/926-fixing-breaches-and-non-compliances>

BACKGROUND:

- Number of breaches/non-compliances:
 - 7,773 for 2018/2019 (in NSW)
 - 7,865 for 2017/2018 (in NSW)
- Varying levels accountability, transparency & fairness
- NSW services' experiences of alleged versus confirmed breaches/non-compliances were significantly different than all other Australian jurisdictions.

41

41

Proposed changes to the NQAITS to record breaches/non-compliances

- To be available only between the Regulatory Authority and the Approved Provider:
 - List of all breaches & non-compliances since 2012 that do not attract financial penalties
 - List of all breaches & non-compliances since 2012 that do attract financial penalties
 - List of breaches to be listed as table(s) (ie active, withdrawn, with+without financial penalty, etc)
 - Escalation paths to the NSW Civil Administrative Tribunal (NCAT) and/or courts
 - Every breach/non-compliance to carry records of issuing officer, evidence, responses, resolution(s).
 - Guarantee that unsubstantiated and withdrawn breaches/non-compliances cannot be used against the Approved Provider(s).
 - Records to be kept and made available to Approved Providers as long as their service(s) remains active.

42

42

Future of Universal Access Funding (and NSW's Start Strong Funding)

- NOUS Report released in late June 2020.
- ACA NSW's observations:
 - Inconsistencies of funding arrangements across all jurisdictions.
 - Inconsistencies of outcomes.
- NOUS Report's recommendations:
 - 5-year funding subject to agreement to consistent arrangements and agreed and uniform outcomes.
- Education Council to make further announcements later in 2020.

43

Amendment to Fire Regulations in 2020

- Australian Building Codes Board (ABCB) has released an amendment to the National Construction Code (aka Building Code):
 - No changes to existing and new ECEC services that operate on the ground and first storey.
 - All services otherwise must have direct access to the street or open space.
 - Performance solutions required for services above ground.

BACKGROUND:

- ABCB's proposed fire regulations in 2019 risked imposing ALL new/existing ECEC services to have sprinklers, dedicated fire corridors, etc.
